JOB TRIALS TO HELP FIND THE RIGHT FIT

Job Seeker Success Story

“THE MOST VALUABLE LESSON I LEARNED IN WORKING WITH VPI WAS TO NEVER GIVE UP. IF YOU’RE STRUGGLING TO FIND WORK, THERE IS GREAT, FREE SUPPORT AVAILABLE — YOU JUST NEED TO SEEK IT OUT.

— Mary, former job seeker

Client:	Mary
Goal:	Finding part-time employment while in school
Challenge:	Lack of job search and interview experience
Support offered:	Pre-employment workshops Interview coaching Job trial

Mary first heard about VPI at her high school where the VPI team visited her class to talk about Youth Job Connection (YJC), a program offering paid workshops and placements to help youth overcome barriers to employment. Lacking experience and confidence with job interviews, Mary struggled to find part-time work while she was in school.

Mary began the YJC program shortly after and received one-on-one and group support to help her through the different stages of the hiring process, including resume building, cover letter writing and mock-interviews. She worked closely with a Youth Job Support Specialist who helped Mary build her confidence and get prepared to meet with employers.

The VPI team helped set up job interviews for her. Mary left a positive impression on the hiring manager she met with and was offered a job in the food service industry. Unsure if this was the company and industry for her, she was hesitant to accept the offer. The job support specialist worked out a job trial, in which Mary was able to start out on a short-term basis and determine if the job was a good match. After a successful trial, Mary began a permanent full-time position. She is performing well at her job and has gained skills she will continue to use in the future.
